Understanding Your Financial Aid Offer

With the delay of the 2024-2025 Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA), Financial Aid Offer letters have not been sent out for the upcoming academic year (2024-2025). We anticipate the first round of Financial Aid Offer letters at the end of April.

If you are not eligible to submit a FAFSA, please see this page Apply for Aid - Aggie One Stop \(tamu.edu\) for other financial aid applications you may be eligible to complete.

We appreciate your patience as we await data from the Department of Education and then test our software systems in order to send out Financial Aid Offer letters; or in some cases request additional information needed from you in order to provide you a Financial Aid Offer letter.

We understand the concern that many of you are experiencing due to the significant changes in the FAFSA and the Federal Student Aid processing systems. Our team is working tirelessly to provide you with a financial aid offer as soon as possible.

Sincerely,

Texas A&M University
